Buying a range is not an every day occurrence—see to it, then, that you get the best. An attack and destruction of a fort on Hospital Point. The attack will commence at 8 p.m. on May 24 and will be a spectacular show. As soon as the discharge of the opening gun of the attack is heard the alarm will be sounded in the fort, the rallying notes of the buglers will be heard calling the gunners of the defenders to arms, and the fire of the attackers will be promptly returned. Under cover of the fire of the field guns on the C. P. R. and G. T. P. wharves two flotillas of boats will leave carrying the rank and file of Nos. 2 and 3 companies of the Fifth Regiment, C. G. A., and fire with rifles will be made from the boats by the attacking party, responded to from the fort. When the guns of the fort have been silenced, the parties in the boats will make a landing, scale the rocks and charge the breastworks of the fort, which will be blown up and a fireworks display will follow.

*"Though it's always good to ride in a race,
And to win it's always stunning;
It's a prouder thing when you set the pace
And make the whole of the running."*

—W. H. Ogilvie

G. H. Mumm & Co.'s Champagnes have run the race, and won. They are now the wines selected at all important state functions, banquets, etc. They always continue to set the pace—even in France, their native land, the drinking of Mumm's Extra Dry,

Selected Brut or Gordon Rouge has become a national institution. This proves the great hold that Mumm's Champagnes have upon the affections of the most general and discriminating class of wine drinkers. To drink Mumm's Champagnes denotes cultivated taste of the epicure and connoisseur. For a good toast there is no Wine like Champagne, and there is no Champagne like "Mumm's." On sale at all licensed dealers, hotels and bars.
